Field Work by Peter Dušek: Museum of Dufferin feature exhibition

Date and Time: Tuesday, January 6 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: Museum of Dufferin, 936029 Airport Road, Mulmur, ON

September 13, 2025 to January 31, 2026

In “Field Work”, Peter Dušek captures the quiet poetry and essence of rural architecture—barns, silos, and country buildings—through a series of photographs that reimagine these structures as part of a broader dialogue with the land and sky they occupy. By dividing each image into distinct colour fields and shapes, Peter distills the complexity of these landscapes into bold, elemental planes, revealing the subtle and striking ways in which buildings and their environments intersect. Each photograph becomes a study in balance, a testament to how the land and its structures shape one another over time.

Peter Dušek is an artist and photographer based in Hockley Valley, whose work is collected around the world.

Alanis Morissette's Jagged Little Pill presented by Orangeville Music Theatre

Date and Time: Friday, January 16 7:30 pm

Address: 87 Broadway, Orangeville, ON

The Musical is an exhilarating new musical inspired by the themes and raw emotions laid bare in Alanis Morissette's seminal album of the same name. The Healys appear to be a picture-perfect suburban family – but looks can be deceiving. When the cracks beneath the surface begin to show, they must choose between maintaining the status quo or facing harsh truths about themselves, their community and the world around them. Mary Jane Healy is a high-achieving homemaker who will do anything for her family, including their adopted African American daughter Frankie, who is struggling to find her place in their lily-white community. But when the Healys' lives begin to unravel, Mary Jane's drive to keep her family together threatens to break them apart.

This production uses theatrical haze/fog and strobe lighting. It contains strong language, adult themes, drug use, and moments of sexual violence that some may find upsetting.

Alanis Morissette's Jagged Little Pill presented by Orangeville Music Theatre

Date and Time: Friday, January 23 7:30 pm

Address: 87 Broadway, Orangeville, ON

The Musical is an exhilarating new musical inspired by the themes and raw emotions laid bare in Alanis Morissette's seminal album of the same name. The Healy's appear to be a picture-perfect suburban family – but looks can be deceiving. When the cracks beneath the surface begin to show, they must choose between maintaining the status quo or facing harsh truths about themselves, their community and the world around them. Mary Jane Healy is a high-achieving homemaker who will do anything for her family, including their adopted African American daughter Frankie, who is struggling to find her place in their lily-white community. But when the Healy's lives begin to unravel, Mary Jane's drive to keep her family together threatens to break them apart.

This production uses theatrical haze/fog and strobe lighting. It contains strong language, adult themes, drug use, and moments of sexual violence that some may find upsetting.
